

Brooklyn Public Library is
Turning 125 and New Utrecht
Library is Celebrating with a
Multicultural Festival

Sat. June 4, 2022, 11 to 3
Dyker Beach Playground, 86th St. & 14th Ave.

11:00-11:10 Welcome to attendees
11:15 -11:45 Big Bubble Girls perform- Vietnamese & Puerto Rican
11:50-12:20 Chinese American Social Centers Dancing Troupe
12:30-1:00 African Drummer – Spuddy Roots
1 PM-1:45 Puppet Mobile /Marionettes: Play = Little Red's Hood
1 PM-1:50 Puerto Rican Artist Wilfredo Santiago teaches drawing
1:50-2:30 Italian Opera performs Russian & Italian Songs
2:30-2:55 Medley of songs by Dyker Singers
2:55-3:00 50/50 Raffle drawn, winner announced

Family Corner: 11:15 to 3 pm: Story time, magic show, paper cutter Mingliang Lu, Queens County Farm Museum, jump rope, hula hoops, corn hole toss, bowl w/veggies, knock down the cans, grab n go kits, arts & crafts,

Food truck & BPL book mobile – 11 to 3. Antique car 12 to 2 pm.

50/50 Raffle - $10 each ticket will be sold. Benefits library programs. Free door prize ticket upon sign in for an individual paper cutting portrait at 12pm, 1pm and 2pm.

Thanks to our sponsors Councilman Brannan, New Utrecht Public Library Friends, and Dyker Library.

Thanks to festival donors: Liberty Pest Control, Stasi/Dallas Electric, Worldwide Merchant Services, & Valentin-Fernandez Family.

Raindate: Sat. June 11, 2022. Program subject to change.